I-READING

---

- Reading English is an important part of language learning because it helps you develop other related skills like grammar, vocabulary, and writing. Reading allows language learners to explore topics that they love and stories that engage them.

2- LISTENING

- Listening skills allow one to make sense of and understand what another person is saying. In other words, listening skills allow people to understand what someone is talking about the meaning behind the words.

3- SPEAKING

---

- English is the official language of 53 countries and is used as a mutually known language by people from all around the world. This means that whether you're working in Beijing, or travelling in Brazil, studying English can help you have a conversation with people from all over the world.

4- WRITING

---

- Learning English writing skills in school can go a long way for students. This globally acquired form of communication is also an efficient job skill that one must possess.
